

Social Events

All news for this department must be at The Republican office Thursday evening. All items must be signed.

SOCIETY EDITOR

Now that society folk have been drawn home from summer haunts they are beginning to plan the winter's festivities. The Country club tea on Saturday will bring together the leaders of the smart set for the first time and as the affair was postponed. The new burnings have been almost a necessity and will greatly add to the comfort and convenience of the members. The entertainment committee, of which Mrs. E. J. Bennett is chairman, will preside at the initial tea.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Redewill gave a pretty appointed dinner early in the week in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Gannon of San Francisco. Mr. and Mrs. Cass Redewill and Mrs. H. A. Piekas were asked to meet the visitors. William A. Horrell arrived Thursday.

Difference In Jewelry

Isn't it strange how jewelry in different stores is so alike, but different when worn? And how illusive differences are covered!

Strange, perhaps, to the casual observer—to the non-inquiring. But to the analytical man or woman our jewelry always shows its quality and always comes out true "in the wash."

And certainly such loyalty as our patrons show makes perfection worth striving for.

Hege & Co.

19 West Washington St.
Jewelers and Opticians

from Los Angeles. It is possible the popular athlete and clubman will again take up his residence here.

Mrs. Leo Goldman returned Thursday from San Francisco.

Mrs. Isaac Taft Stoddard is home again after an enjoyable summer in Honolulu. She passed the early autumn months in Los Angeles.

Of exceptional interest to Phoenixians will be an article that appeared in an eastern newspaper recently concerning Mr. and Mrs. Antonin Sterba. Mrs. Sterba will be recalled as Mabel Messenger, a sister of Dr. J. A. Messenger of this city who passed a winter here several years ago and who was noted then when a very young girl, as one of the leading harpists of the country. After leaving here she went to Chicago where she married the artist whose portrait of her has attracted wide attention. Mr. and Mrs. Sterba are now in Chicago after a delightful summer in St. Charles and it is quite possible that they will come west this winter. Following is the account of the talented artist:

Although Mr. Sterba's chief work has been done in portrait, he does equally as well in landscape, and it was the charm of the Fox river valley that took him to St. Charles last summer. He worked on many scenes in the vicinity, and in the fall, plans to have an exhibit of his work in Chicago.

Among portraits that have attracted wide attention are those of a "Southern Girl," "Lady in Gray," "Mrs. Larrabee," wife of a former governor of Iowa, and many others.

Mr. Sterba shares his honors, however, with a very gifted wife, Mrs. Mabel Messenger Sterba is one of the most talented harpists in the country. Her programs range from the classics for the harp to transcriptions from the masters. She plays many of her own compositions which are of real value to harp literature. She owns one of the most valuable instruments in the country.

Mr. and Mrs. Sterba and their little son had a wonderful experience in Europe during the war. Mr. Sterba had a studio in Paris, and they returned home a year ago. They had a most difficult time getting passage. Mrs. Sterba and little son, and maid, got passage on the Lusitania, making a run through the danger zone with lights out. On a return trip shortly after the Lusitania went down, Mrs. Sterba was ill with anxiety and fright, after the trip, not knowing if her husband could return, and if he did start, she had fears for the safety of the boat.

During her stay abroad, Mrs. Sterba visited in Toledo, the famous old city in Spain, and passed some time at the home there of her ancestor, the duke of Alva.

Mrs. Sterba was born in Moravia. He studied art at the Art Institute in Chicago, and under Jean Paul Laurens and Benjamin Constant, Paris. He is a member of Chicago Society of Artists, Chicago Water Color Club, The Artists Guild, Bohemian Arts Club and Cliff Dwellers. He is instructor and lecturer at Art Institute, Chicago.

In honor of Mrs. H. D. McVay who will leave this evening for Washington, D. C., Mr. and Mrs. Frank Baum gave a card affair Thursday evening at their home, 1402 North Central avenue. The living rooms were decorated in a yellow and white color scheme, artistically carried out in chrysanthemum, marigolds and daisies. Bridge and piquet were played. The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. McVay, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Fennimore, Dr. and Mrs. E. W. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Hannay, Mr. and Mrs. Charles K. Pishon, Mr. and Mrs. John O'Malley, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wayland, Mrs. Stanley Matthews of El Paso, Dr. R. W. Craig, Dr. Edwin Bates, Ned Creighton and Elmy A. Thurlandson.

In celebration of his birthday, Joe Casson gave an informal dinner Thursday evening at the American Kitchen.

Complimentary to her sister-in-law, Mrs. Stanley Matthews of El Paso, Mrs. H. M. Fennimore recently entertained with a luncheon of six covers at the Arizona club followed by a theater party at the Columbia.

Mrs. Clay Leonard was a recent luncheon hostess her guests including Mrs. Joseph Sherburne Jenckes, Mrs. Harry Carson, Mrs. Roy Wayland, and Mrs. W. E. Neill.

Alternating a card affair with a thimble party, a group of young society matrons have organized a club to meet once a week. In addition to the afternoon events the club will occasionally give a bridge evening. The membership included among others Mrs. Robert Matthews, Mrs. Herbert Burr Atha, Jr., Mrs. Maurice O'Neill, Mrs. Herbert Stevenson, Mrs. Charles Gardiner and Mrs. Sims Ely, Jr.

Mrs. Howard Claffin gave a delightful children's party Thursday afternoon in honor of the third birthday of her daughter Miss Pauline Claffin. The little folk who enjoyed the happy occasion were Miss Kathleen Dourson, Earl Donald Grizzard, Billie Baisley, Robert Dourson, Ellis Callahan, Richard Van Meter, Billy Washer and Bruce Claffin.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Callahan of Chicago have been the recipients of many social attentions since their arrival on Tuesday. Mr. Callahan visited here before but this is the first time his bride has been in Arizona and she is charmed with the country and the cordial hospitality of Phoenixians. Mr. Callahan is a brother of Mrs. Ernest Munson and Mrs. S. Bernard Thomas and the visitors are dividing their time between the two homes. On Friday evening Dr. and Mrs. Munson gave a dinner of fourteen covers in their home, 534 North Fourth avenue. The decorative scheme being unusually elaborate and carried out in a profusion of American Beauty roses. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas have also given a dinner and on the calendar of the coming week are many other affairs including picnics, luncheons and motor trips to places of interest in the valley.

Cards have been received announcing the wedding of Miss Helen Carol Hough and Samuel E. Shrigley which took place at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Mary Hough, 345 North Third avenue on September 26. No announcement was made of the event before the marriage, which was an extremely quiet affair, owing to a recent bereavement in the bride's family. Although only the necessary witnesses were present at the ceremony, the house was decorated charmingly for the event, greenery, white carnations and roses being used with artistic effect. The bride wore a becoming frock of white satin and carried a shower bouquet of bride's rose buds and orchids. Reverend J. M. Marquis of the Presbyterian church read the service. Mr. and Mrs. Shrigley are passing their honeymoon at the coast and on their return will take up their residence with the bride's mother. Mr. Shrigley is connected with the Halstead Lumber Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Campbell continue their absence from town to the regret of their many friends here. They summered in Flagstaff and enjoyed their stay in the north to such an extent that they decided to remain until November. Although they have not set any definite time for their return they will arrive in Phoenix for the fair. As usual they will be hostess and will no doubt, have guests from Flagstaff.

Mrs. Herbert Burr Atha returned Wednesday from a three months' absence passed in San Diego and Long Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Royal Lescher returned Friday from a fortnight's stay in Los Angeles and Santa Barbara.

Mrs. Frederick Robbins and Miss Eva Robbins left Sunday for San Carlos where they will winter.

Mrs. William Livermore of Yuma is the guest of Mrs. E. E. Kirkland for the week end.

CLUB NOTES

Official Organ State Federation of Clubs

Mrs. W. W. McNeill, chairman of the Woman's club echoes the sentiment of the entire organization when she predicts a brilliant winter for the club.

Although the Woman's club of Phoenix will not be formally opened until October 17 if the activity of the president, Mrs. John Bennett, Jr., together with the board of directors, the chairman of each department and the members in general is any criterion to go by, the Woman's club house will be the scene of many pleasant and profitable Tuesday afternoons," says Mrs. McNeill.

"The programs for the club year have been planned with great care and the members who have decided not to miss any of the meetings will not regret it.

"The conditions which exist throughout the whole world at the present time seem to call for the banding together of our women to help sustain our high ideals. We seem to have a part to play today in the affairs of the world with which we were never before confronted.

"Our Woman's club stands for everything which is intellectual, uplifting and educational.

"We meet together for feasts of reason as well as the pleasure it gives us in making our friends in a social way. Making a broad statement—the club house is a profitable place in which to spend our Tuesday afternoons.

"We would be pleased if every woman in our fair city realized what it would mean to her to be a member of the club and enjoy our meetings, especially would we extend this wish to the woman with many home cares who finds so little time to delve into the problems which are so much important to our home city. Then again how profitable are our talks on art and literature, our music, our associations with the old masters who have passed on and yet have left so much to us. And again how profitable it is when you have grown so tired of planning well-balanced meals for your family to come to club and have these suggestions brought to you. Again I say the club house is a profitable place in which to spend your Tuesday afternoons.

"If any of our club members have friends they think would enjoy our meetings, why not bring them along. The names should be presented Tuesday, October 10, at which time the board will meet in special session. If this is done the friend will miss only one regular meeting which would be the opening meeting, October 17. Membership cards may be had from the president, Mrs. John Bennett, or the secretary, Miss Flora Grier.

Katherine O'Brien, a brilliant young Irish woman will give a series of lectures in Phoenix if the College club is fortunate enough to secure her for the week preceding the fair. She is in Los Angeles at present and the word has been received here that she will be available for a few days in November.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kennedy Humbert returned Tuesday from Los Angeles where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. V. R. Malcolm and their attractive daughter, Miss Grace Malcolm and Miss Hazel Malcolm. The Malcolms it will be recalled passed a few months here a year ago and were the guests of honor at many smart affairs. They contemplate returning this winter, in February, according to their present plans to pass a few weeks with the Humberts at their country place on the Maricopa Road. Miss Charlotte Brown accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Humbert from the coast and is dividing her month's stay here between them and the William S. Humberts.

Mrs. Louis H. Chalmers and her daughter, Mrs. Charles McArthur will leave Monday for a ten days' absence in Los Angeles. They will visit Mrs. Chalmers' mother, Mrs. S. E. Coats, who may possibly return with them.

Mrs. C. H. Akers returned Wednesday from Los Angeles where she was extensively feted. Among those who entertained in her honor were Mr. and Mrs. William Durham who formerly resided here.

Mrs. J. W. Dorris returned Monday from San Francisco.

Miss May Noble who has leased the vestal residence, 508 East Culver street, for the season is anticipating a visit from her mother, Mrs. L. C. Noble, who will arrive from Evanston shortly. She will be accompanied from the east by another daughter, Mrs. Charles D. Marsh who will be established at 43 West McDowell street this winter.

Mrs. Warren McArthur who summered at La Jolla has returned.

Mrs. Arthur Luhrs returned Monday from California where she passed a few weeks at the southern beaches.

Mrs. Daniel Francis left Friday for Flagstaff where she will join Mr. Francis and leave with him early in the week for New Mexico. They will be absent for an indefinite period.

R. P. Davis has leased an attractive residence on Fifth and Culver streets where the family will be domiciled this winter.

Mrs. Charles K. Pishon will entertain with bridge Monday afternoon, October 30, at her home, 250 North Fourth avenue.

Miss Anna Marie Luke gave a delightfully appointed dinner Thursday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Wilhelm Parr of Prescott, who were among the out of town guests at the Hlaworth-Boyle wedding on Wednesday.

The most notable event of the early autumn was the wedding of Miss Helen Huberta Boyle and Forrest Leland Hlaworth, which took place at St. Mary's church on Wednesday. It was an exceedingly beautiful affair, attended by a representative gathering of the social and musical sets. Mr. and Mrs. Hlaworth, who are passing their honeymoon on the coast, will be at home in Prescott after November 15. They plan to visit in Phoenix during the holiday season.

The brilliant lecturer was a great personal friend of Sir Roger Casement and knows intimately leaders in the political and artistic sets of Ireland. Her discussions are on art, politics and music and are interesting and illuminating according to her critics. The College club is considering booking her for the lectures confident that her talks will be of great interest to the public. The matter was discussed at the initial meeting of the club Wednesday. The program was on Macerlinck.

The Business Girls' club of the Young Women's Christian Association will inaugurate its season tomorrow evening with a banquet at the Association building. Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Donofrio will be the guests of honor. At this time the program for the ensuing year will be presented. There is probably not a club in the city that will offer its members a more diversified year's study, and secure course with interesting social features to round out the season's calendar.

The program has been arranged as follows:

October 9—Banquet.

October 23—Supper at 6:15. Current events, Constitutional Amendments, P. M. Stahl, Prohibition Amendments, Gady Gammage.

November 13—Surprise night.

November 27—Supper at 6:15. Current events, Cooperation Between Employer and Employee, Chas. Korrick, C. T. Hirst.

December 11—Supper at 6:15. Current events, Xmas stories, Miss Mary Mildred Smith, Xmas carols.

January 8—Supper, Current Events, Office manners, dress, etc. H. E. Hornberger, Business Efficiency, G. W. Barrows, "Going Up," H. B. Wilkinson.

February 12—Taffy pull.

February 26—Supper, Current events, Book review, "What Men Live By," by Dr. Cabot, given by Rev. W. S. Buchanan.

March 12—Farce, "The Minister's Wife."

March 26—Supper, Current events, Hygiene, Dr. Marion Wilson, Tennis club, as guests for the evening.

April 9—Social evening at the Crittendon home.

April 23—Supper, Current events, Talk: Christian Citizenship for Girls, Dean Scarlett, Character Analysis, R. R. Boardman.

May 14—Desert picnic.

May 21—Supper, Current events, Efficiency—Religion, Miss Nell Blount; Womanhood, Mrs. E. M. Lamson; Homemaking, Mrs. C. T. Hirst; Club Work, Mrs. Dwight B. Heard.

June 11—House party at Mrs. Lucy Kavanaugh's.

June 25—Supper, Current events, W. C. A. night, Vacations, W. S. Goldworthy, A. R. Gatter.

July 9—Park party.

Adjournment to September.

The Osborn Parent Teacher Association will give a reception to the teachers of the district school Friday evening. A program will be presented, the contributions being dramatic readings and musical numbers.

Discussing in a general way "China," the topic of the year, the Friday club opened its season last week. A luncheon followed the informal program.

Mrs. C. R. Howe was chosen secretary at an executive board meeting of the Arizona Congress of Mothers held Monday afternoon, to take the place of Mrs. W. R. Washburn who has changed her residence to Alaska. In addition to the election of Mrs. Howe, the work for the coming year was discussed. The congress will meet again November 6 when the Better Baby contest and Rest Room at the fair will be given attention.

The fifth biennial prize competition for American composers offered by the National Federation of Musical clubs will be held in Tucson in November. All those who are interested in the competition are requested to notify Mrs. W. R. Battin, president of the Musicians' club.

Tom French, secretary of the State Federation of Labor will speak on the "Compensation Law" at the Civic League Wednesday afternoon. Representatives of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company and of the Young Men's Business League will discuss "The Municipal Bond Election" at the same meeting. Mrs. Anna Henderson, president of the league in discussing the program outlined for the next few weeks said:

"It is the intention of the league between now and election to analyze the proposed amendments to the constitution and measures by initiative petition. As there are fifteen of these measures it will occupy the full time

(Continued on Page Two)

Hallowe'en Novelties for Hallowe'en Parties

Make your party a real party by visiting us and see assortment.

Miller Sterling Co.

H. W. Daykin, Pres.
44 North Central Ave.

We exercise our trained judgment in buying woolsens.

Buy only the best.

Hence the splendid wearing qualities of our clothes.

If you're interested in good quality wearables, you should become acquainted with "Edwin Clapp" Shoes.

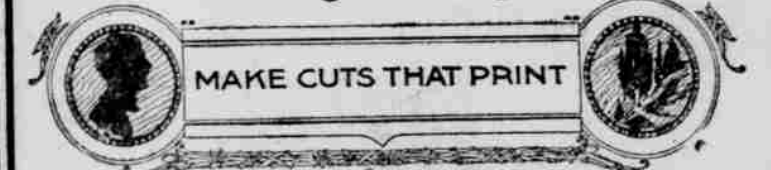

Unquestionably the best shoe in America.

Here alone, in Phoenix.

McDougall and Cassou

Washington Street.

Phoenix Engraving Company

S. HARRY ROBERTSON

35 East Washington St. Phone 1709

Jack Sherman

Formerly Manager Donofrio's

Beginning Monday

will have the management of the

Soda Fountain and Lunch

Privilege at the

BUSY DRUG STORE

To make a specialty of Business Men's Lunch—11 to 3

Hot Tamales Chile Con Carne, Enchiladas served all day—Pastry.

Everything cooked on the premises

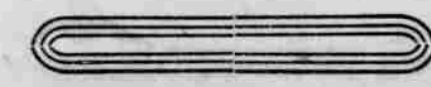

Moderate and popular prices

Get acquainted with "JACK'S" lunch suggestions at the—

BUSY

Tables for Ladies

Quick Service our Motto

'Cline Maid' Combination Hiking and Riding Skirt

made with Riding Breeches and Skirt combined in one piece, extra light and comfortable.

- Khakies
- Whipcords
- Corduroys
- Woolens

"Everything Outing and Athletic."

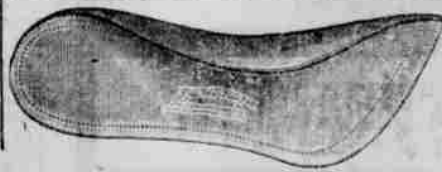

LOS ANGELES
214 West 3rd St.

and Spring at Sixth

Write for Catalogue

Patent Pending

Flexible Arch Supports

No metal. Price $2 per pair. All sizes for sale by SHIRLEY & SHIRLEY 29-31 E. Adams St.